Situated in one of the loveliest areas of the country, yet easily accessible from Chester the Wirral and other areas of the North West and under 3½ hours from central London, Crogen Hall, situated in the heart of its estate, provides a spectacular setting for an intimate and discrete wedding with a difference.

“We’ve arrived in Paradise”

A comment often heard at Crogen and who could argue! Most weddings at this venue span the entire weekend with some guests stay even longer combining the celebrations with a short break. The River Dee runs through the estate with fishing for salmon, trout and grayling. Other facilities include an all-weather tennis court, football, croquet and walking country on the privately owned estate. If this is not enough to keep your friends amused, white water rafting at Bala Lake is close by.

Crogen Hall itself is an impressive, welcoming country house with friendly helpful owners. Elegant reception rooms are available for a small dinner party and some overnight accommodation may be available in the Hall (in addition to that in The Coach House) by arrangement with the owners. The gardens are full of colour in spring and summer making this a wonderful marquee venue!
