A wonderful wedding venue that has an historic association with the great Admiral Nelson. Still a privately-owned home, rich interiors and glorious gardens make it a fabulous venue for summer or winter weddings.

Licensed for Civil Weddings in the Baroque Hall for up to 120 guests.

This is a hugely versatile venue with several rooms that can be used in a variety of different ways to suit your particular requirements. It feels like your own, rather grand, family home!

The magnificent Baroque Hall, in conjunction with the adjoining Drawing Room, can be used for a drinks or canapé reception for up to 150 guests. With its far-reaching views over surrounding countryside and full-length windows to the Terraced Gardens, this is a lovely, light, bright room.

In the newly restored south wing, up to 70 guests can be seated in the Dining Room, a gracious, hexagonal room, with an additional 50 guests in the adjacent Billiard Room.

These rooms are approached via the South Corridor, which connects the central part of the house to the South Wing. Excellent for a drinks area, the South Corridor too is light and bright with full-length windows on both sides. Dancing usually takes place in the Billiard Room.

Larger weddings may extend the use of the house with a marquee.

Exclusive Use Location Fee
Peak Days Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays	£4500
Off Peak Days Monday to Thursday (Excluding Bank Holidays and Christmas to New Year fortnight)	£2000 (For weddings finishing before 8pm)
