The perfect country garden marquee venue

Set in beautiful gardens, surrounded by 200 acres of Surrey countryside, Brewerstreet Farmhouse is close to the M25, A25 and public transport links.

The marquee is approached across a pretty bridge over a small stream – a wonderfully romantic setting for photographs.

The beautiful Tudor, Grade I listed farmhouse was built in about 1430. The frame of the house is of oak construction with a Horsham-stone roof. Having undergone many renovations and additions over the years, the last was carried out in 1969.
